Thought for the week – 'Be yourself because everyone else is taken' Oscar Wilde

News Headlines!

- Following the excitement of World Book Day last week, we were absolutely delighted to see our celebrations highlighted on the National Literacy Trust's social media page. This national recognition is a testament to the enthusiasm of our pupils, the creativity of our staff, and the fantastic support from our families. The joy and imagination shared throughout the day truly reflected our love of reading, and we're so proud to see that recognised more widely.
- In EYFS, the team have been busy hosting some Stay and Play Mother's Day activity sessions. These sessions were filled with smiles and special moments between children and their grown-ups. It was wonderful to see families enjoying time together in such a warm and engaging environment. A huge thank you to everyone who attended and to our EYFS staff for creating such memorable experiences.
- If you enjoyed these sessions—or if you're looking for more opportunities to meet other families and spend quality time with your little ones—why not pop in for a chat with Kelly and Michelle, our Family Support Workers? They would love to tell you more about our weekly Stay and Play sessions for parents and toddlers. These friendly, informal gatherings are a great way to build connections, support early development, and be part of our vibrant school community.
- Our stars of the week this week have all been chosen for demonstrating our Cape 8 values this week.
