Thought for the week – 'Who will you look out for this week?'

HEADLINE NEWS

News Headlines!

- It has been another lovely week in school, full of learning, reflection and celebration.
- Our Year 4 children enjoyed a very special assembly this week with a visiting speaker who led an engaging session about Religious Education. The children listened beautifully and asked some thoughtful questions, showing real curiosity and respect. The assembly helped to deepen their understanding of different beliefs and values, and encouraged them to think about kindness, reflection and respect for others. We are very proud of the mature way Year 4 represented our school and would like to thank our visitor for taking the time to make the experience so meaningful.
- We also have some wonderful news to share from our school family. Over the Easter holidays, two very special members of staff, our much-loved caretaker Mr Hyde and our dedicated cleaner Ms Hope, tied the knot! After knowing each other for an incredible 47 years, they are now happily starting this new chapter together as Mr and Mrs Hyde. Their story has brought many smiles to staff and pupils alike, and it has been heart-warming to see the excitement and happiness shared across the school.
- We would like to offer our warmest congratulations to Mr and Mrs Hyde and wish them many more happy years together filled with love, laughter and good health.
- Our stars of the week this week have all been chosen for fantastic English work this week.
