News Headlines!

- Yesterday was a fantastic day in school celebrating World Book Day! It is not often you get to come to school in your PJs and share your favourite stories. The response to our parent reading café was phenomenal, it was lovely to see so many parents sharing books and activities with their children. Our star story-teller, Mrs Ambleton, was on hand to read a story to the whole group.
- This week has also seen the start to the holy month of Ramadan and the season of Lent. We know this is a special time for many families and wish anyone participating a blessed and peaceful fast and time of prayer.
- We have a very talented artist in Year 6, Solomia is a talented portrait artist and has been busy drawing portraits. She is going to draw a portrait of Miss Baker next!
- We have reached our whole school attendance target this week!!!!
