Thought for the week – Eid Mubarak!

News Headlines

- Firstly, we would like to welcome everyone back to the final term of the academic year and wish all of our families and community who celebrated Eid this week a blessed celebration – Eid Mubarak!
- On Tuesday 16th April at 8.30am there is an important meeting for Year 6 parents about the forthcoming SATs tests that your children will be taking. The meeting is at 8.30am and is in the infant hall – please come to the main office and we will take you to the hall.
- There have been some new clubs offered this term, particularly for years 1,2,5 & 6 – look out for the TT Rockstars club to help with learning multiplication facts!
- We raised £316.33 before the Easter holiday for the Babybank. We will be purchasing baby items and items for new mothers and donating them to the local Babybank in Smethwick. Thank you so much for your kind and generous donations.
- We have changed the way we deliver homework to children this term. Please can we ask that all parents support this change by ensuring your child reads daily and practices their maths. Many thanks for your support.

Attendance

Our school target is 96.9%. We must make sure children come to school every day and are on time. Our top attendance this week is...

EYFS – RB – 74.9%

KS1 – 1B – 85.3%,

LKS2 – 4B – 83.7%

UKS2 – 6B – 82.9%

These classes will have 10 minutes extra play. Well done!

Overall – 78%* Eid 10/04/24

Quiz Question

Last week:

What is the longest mammal?

The giraffe or blue whale

This week:

How many blackbirds were baked in the pie in the nursery rhyme – sing a song of sixpence?

Book Recommendation

This week's book recommendation is from Yuvraj in 6B. His favourite book is 'The Diary of a Wimpey Kid' by Jeff Kinney. He likes the books because they are interesting and very funny!

Helping at home this week!

Hopefully spring is finally on it's way. What signs of spring can you see on your walk to school?

Dorothy Parkes Centre:

If you would like to explore nature, learn new skills and work with local artists, poets, and horticulturalists then why not come along to our creative sessions. Sessions will start on Monday 8th April and will run through to the end of September. There will also be volunteering opportunities and access to free training. 0121 558 2998 <https://www.dorothyparkes.org/>

Please make sure we have the correct contact details for your child.
