Thought for the week – Check in with someone this week.

News Headlines

- A gentle reminder, that if you usually pay for school dinners and you would like your child to have a Christmas lunch on Wednesday 13th December then please make sure you have ordered and paid on Parent pay before next Wednesday!
- We break up for the Christmas holidays on Friday 22nd December at 1.30pm and come back to school on Monday 8th January 2024!
- Governors – we have vacancies for parent governors at the school, if you are interested then please see Miss Baker who will provide more information.
- Parents – did you know there are apps that you can use to help you with parental controls on your child's devices? This means you can set time limits for screen time and monitor usage.

Attendance

Our school target is 96.9%. We must make sure children come to school every day and are on time. Our top attendance this week is...

EYFS – RA – 95.3%, getting better!

KS1 – 2A – 98.2%, good work!

LKS2 – 4B – 95.2%, could be better!

UKS2 – 6C – 95.2%, could be better!

These classes will have 10 minutes extra play. Well done!

Overall – 92.9%

This Week:

Who is the world's most expensive footballer?

Book Recommendation

This week's book recommendation is from Adil in 5A. His favourite book is Bunny Vs Monkey by Jamie Smart because he enjoys reading comics and he likes the style of the book.

Dates for the Diary:

Helping at home this week!

Well-being and mental health. This issue and topic is as important for children as it is adults. Why not take some time this week away from screens, devices and other activities and check in with each other to see how we all are.

Sandwell Council & Christmas: For residents of Sandwell we thought we would share some key information about council services over the Christmas period. You can access a full and detailed overview of opening times etc by following this link: <https://www.sandwell.gov.uk/contact/council-services-christmas-new-year>

Please make sure we have the correct contact details for your child.
