Thought for the week – 'Power For Good' – Anti-bullying week theme 2025

News Headlines!

- This week has been packed with exciting experiences for our pupils! On Tuesday, we welcomed Rocksteady Music into school for a truly rousing assembly. The hall was alive with rhythm and energy as the team showcased the joy of making music together. Our pupils were inspired by the performances and left buzzing with enthusiasm—who knows, we may have some future rock stars among us!*
- Friday brought a very important message with our Road Safety Assembly. As the evenings draw in and it gets darker earlier, staying safe on the roads is more crucial than ever. The session reminded everyone about the importance of being seen, crossing carefully, and making sensible choices when out and about. Thank you to everyone who listened so attentively and took these lessons to heart.*
- Meanwhile, Year 3 had an unforgettable day on Thursday with their Egyptians Workshop. They stepped back in time to explore the fascinating world of Ancient Egypt, discovering secrets of the pharaohs, hieroglyphics, and even mummification! The hands-on activities and storytelling brought history to life in a way that books alone never could.*
- Our stars of the week this week have all been chosen for showing the super strength of being a great ambassador for the anti-bullying week values this week.*
